POT LUCK

Our Potluck attendance was down due to our winter residents returning home. There were thirty-seven, which is a sizable number.

Ron Colwell was the gold plate winner for April. He and his guest enjoyed all the delicious dishes others had made.

May winner is Blinky St. Jean. He and his guest will enjoy the honor of sitting at the gold table. There were several door prizes and 50/50 money to share.

For the May potluck, bring your favorite dish to share and your drink. See you May 13th at 5:30 p.m.

SPREAD SOME SUNSHINE

If you know one of our residents who might be ill or just not feeling well, please contact Joyce Ryan (our Sunshine Lady) so she can send them a special card. Joyce collects this information and provides it to the Echoes as well. If she does not know then we do not know.

And another one bites the dust...

Herman Bott keeping an eye out for Covered Bridge, organized a work team to put a fiber roof coating on the two sheds in the compound, helping to keep our treasures dry for the next sale. Herman's work crew included Gene Fischer, Jerry Atchley, Fred Smith, Randy Grohler, Larry Angell, Rick Hill, and Lee Maule.

Thanks to Herman for organizing this crew and accomplishing an excellent job.

CORNHOLE

We had a great time this year with our first tournament, and we hope to improve the tournament for next year.

When players put 4 bags in a row, they are privileged to sign that Corn Hole Board. This year we had quite a few new players that accomplished this and those were:

Sam Imbrunone 1 time
Wes Simer 3 times
Jim Palmatier 1 time
Dave Bieganski 1 time
Bruce Mackowink 1 time

Also, some of our return players got 4 in a row, and those were:

Bob Lung 12 times
Dave Horner 11 times
Jack Gasior 4 times

The fancy trophies were hand made by Frank Alcorn.

Corn hole season has come to a sad end this year because Dave Horner will not be returning next year, and we will miss him.

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

We are planning our ladies Christmas luncheon. It will be at the Jacaranda Hotel in Avon Park on November 29th, at 12:00 p.m. The price will be $17.50, and will include tip, coffee, or soft drink.

We will again be playing our "Favorite Thing", but we will only be bringing one of our favorite things instead of three.

We will also be taking up a collection for the Lake Placid Elementary School students. Money will be used for kids that can't afford to go on a field trip and/or need shoes and school supplies.

The Story of the Poppy

© Positivity Toolbox
The poppy flower only grows in the absence of other flowers and only in ground that has been churned. In perhaps the best known poem of World War I, when Dr. John McCrae observed poppies growing between the crosses on the soldiers' graves, it inspired him to write the poem In Flanders Fields. The poppy has since become known as "The Flower of Remembrance" and is worn in memory of our veterans.

I'm sharing this poppy in remembrance of the veterans as well as the active service members and wishing you a beautiful Memorial Day weekend.

Sincerely,
Your Covered Bridge Echoes Staff

HIGHLIGHTS OF MARCH 12, 2022 HOA BOARD MEETING

There were 48 people in attendance.

Tom Taylor reviewed for residents and newer members of how business is typically handled at Covered Bridge. Explaining that action is seldom taken on a resolution until at least two months have passed, giving folks a chance to share their feelings with the HOA Board. Also, residents are not to leave items on the curb until the Monday before trash day. Residents should ask for assistance when needed. Venetian Boulevard parking should be very limited. And don't let contractor vehicles completely block the road.

A petition had been presented to President Tom Taylor, requesting immediate contact be made with an appropriate engineering firm to study the needs of a new swimming pool.

Rick Kennedy reported on the shuffleboard improvement project. that had passed at a previous meeting. It was recommended that the Board accept the quote from Lee Aluminum for $15,600.

Tom Wacker talked about the new water fountain and the success in eliminating an odor problem from the Clubhouse.

Cliff Hangley spoke of a current petition to U.S. Water from our residents, to reduce the smell and noise of the water plant.

Cindy Hubbel announced that the Tuesday after the board meeting would be the new regular date for the social committee to meet.

Tom Wacker talked about the painting of the Clubhouse which is a great improvement. Tom, his wife Teri, and Lee Maule deserve a strong thank you for that work. Herman Bott reported that the sealing of the compound roofs had begun. The hedges out in front of the Clubhouse have been removed and 140 bags of mulch were spread by volunteers.

Bill Burse talked about needing folks to weed eat and clean their area when they remove a trailer, boat, or RV from the compound area.

Frank Brown discussed the pool and its issues. He stated that the lack of proper chlorination has been the main problem of late in the clearness of the pool.

Bob Evans was not present, but has four new professional signs to erect, notifying drivers of the Neighborhood Watch Program. Jan Reese asked about "snowbirds" being able to send complaints to U.S. Water.

Ron Cobert asked about a report of someone under 55 living in the community. Jack Gasior requested speed tables to slow drivers down on Venetian.

Ed Cunningham warned the community about the presence of "Luber Grasshoppers".

Bobbi Snow wondered what should be done about moldy houses and tall grass in her neighborhood.

Joyce Skiba explained her success in calling the Fed Ex company and getting their trucks to slow down.

TRIMMING PALM TREES

Palm trees are not actually trees. They are monocots and are related to grasses more than trees. Other types of monocots include sedges, orchids, and bamboo. Palms have a single growing point at the top of each stem or trunk known as the apical meristem but commonly called the heart or bud. From this one point, all new leaves or fronds will form. Palms that branch are rare and often this is caused by damage to the bud that results in the bud dividing. Only a few palm species will laterally branch.

Palms require special fertilizers. The University of Florida recommends a slow release 8-2-12 fertilizer with 4% magnesium. The first three numbers are percentages of nitrogen, phosphorous, and potassium, in that order. Common deficiencies of palms that show up on older fronds are magnesium and potassium. The older or lower fronds may have yellowing spots or major yellowing along the tips of the fronds. Palms should be fertilized regularly to stay healthy.

The health of a palm is tied very closely to fertilization but also to how it is trimmed. Palms rely heavily on making their own food in the form of carbohydrates through the process of photosynthesis. This process requires healthy fronds to remain on the trees. Over-trimming is very detrimental to palms. All fronds that remain partially green should be left on the palm flowers and flower pods can be trimmed off. Taking off too many fronds interferes with the palm being able to produce enough food to sustain itself.

Some palms will trim themselves and do not need to be trimmed. These self-cleaning palms have a green crown shaft on the stem below the fronds. They include royal palms, foxtail palms, and Christmas palms, to name a few. Most of these species are not cold hardy and are more commonly found in South Florida.
